

LATIN ROOTS, WEEK 19

HAL

exhale

exhaltation

halitosis

inhalant

halitophobia

halimeter

inhale

inhaler

HAB

habeas corpus

habitat

habitual

rehabilitate

habituate

habit

cohabit

inhibit

PATR/MATR

maternal

matrimony

matronly

matriarch

patriarchy

patronize

repatriate

expatriate

TO BREATHE

to breathe out

raising up; praise

bad breath

a drug that is inhaled as a vapor fear of bad breath instrument to measure bad breath to breathe in an instrument to administer medications by inhalation

TO LIVE/TO HAVE

the right not to be held in prison without first being charged with a crime

Place where an organism lives established by long use to return to normal life to become used to a repetitive act performed by a particular individual live together

to hold back

FATHER/MOTHER

of or like a mother

marriage

like a married woman; dignified; stately a female head of a family or tribe a form of social organization in which males dominate females condescend to

to return to one's country of origin

an exile