- You may skip one of the twelve essays.
- All essays are due the day they are due, with no exceptions.
- If you miss the day of an in-class write, it will be due at the start of the next class day.
- All essays should reflect diligent, thoughtful attention to detail and the expectations we have discussed all year.
- Please spend the allotted time on your essays--no more, no less.
- Please leave margin space so I can leave comments on your pieces.
